Rental Policy

The JCC East Bay's vision is to be a geographically accessible home that provides high-quality programs and gathering spaces throughout the East Bay. We aim to advance, nurture, and evolve Jewish communal life and contribute to the vitality of the broader community. The center offers its facility to support our ongoing programs and services.

To confirm a rental, the renter must complete a rental proposal form, contract, and release of liability, and pay a deposit before the rental can be confirmed.

A rental may be denied due to JCC East Bay events, holidays, and JCC East Bay closures.

Cancellation Policy
Two weeks’ advance notice is required for rental cancellation. With two weeks’ advance notice, the renter is entitled to a full refund minus the deposit, not to exceed the contract amount. With less than two weeks’ notice or in case of a no-show, the renter is responsible for the payment in full, to be paid by the thirty days following the scheduled event.

Extended Occupancy
If renter exceeds the previously agreed-upon event duration, the renter is responsible for paying for each additional hour at the agreed-upon hourly rate.

Reservation Deposits
A 25% deposit is required at the time the contract is initially signed. A $500 deposit is required when renting the theater if A/V is used. This deposit amount will be applied toward the total rental fee provided the event is not cancelled, and provided that there has been no damage to JCC property.

Security
Security personnel may be required if event exceeds a certain number of people. This will be determined upon rental request. Renter will be responsible for cost of security to be paid in addition to the deposit.

Food and Beverage
The JCC does not have a list of preferred caterers. All food brought into the JCC must be kosher/kosher style and must be vegetarian. Renters only have access to kitchen for food set-up and preparation (no cooking permitted). Use of the kitchen will incur an additional charge per hour.

The JCC requires that all tableware (including cups, plates, utensils, napkins) must be compostable and/or recyclable. The JCC will make recycling and compost waste baskets available to renters.

Alcohol Policy
All service of alcoholic beverages must be approved prior to an event. Alcohol liability insurance is required, and evidence of insurance must be provided by the client or its vendor a minimum of two weeks before the event.

An ABC permit may also be required for events open to the public. In that case, the renter must obtain a liquor license from the Berkeley Police Department and the Alcohol Beverage Control in Oakland and is responsible for the fees associated with the license.

Failure to secure necessary permits and insurance and/or failure to provide evidence of both by the required deadline will result in termination of the client's right to serve alcohol.

The client and its vendors are responsible for ensuring proper administration of alcohol which includes the following:

- There must be a person in charge, meaning they are at least 21 years of age and have recognized authority for the event. The person must responsible for compliance with applicable state laws and JCC East Bay policies and procedures, and shall be on the premises for the entire time that alcohol is served
- Alcohol must be secured and attended at all times
- Age must be verified before any alcohol is served, and serving must be refused to underage or intoxicated individuals.
- Refusal of service to underage and intoxicated individuals
